Pageturner's Book Group
By Invitation Only, by Dorothea Benton Frank
Monday, July 9, 11AM

A young, sophisticated Chicago woman falls for the owner of a farm on Johns Island, a lush low country paradise off the coast of South Carolina, and trades the bustle of cosmopolitan city life for the vagaries of a small Southern community. Books are available at the Circulation Desk.

A Bluegrass beach read.

A bit of London, 1932. Lady Victoria Georgiana Charlotte Eugenie, 34th in line for the English throne, is flat broke. She's bolted Scotland, her greedy brother, and her fish-faced betrothed.

London is a place where she'll experience freedom, learn life lessons aplenty, do a bit of spying for HRH—oh, and find a dead Frenchman in her tub. Now her new job is to clear her long family name...

Books available at the circulation desk.

NOVA: The Origami Revolution
Wednesday, July 11, 2018, 6:30 PM

The centuries-old tradition of folding two-dimensional paper into three-dimensional shapes is inspiring a scientific revolution. The rules of folding are at the heart of many natural phenomena, from how leaves blossom to how beetles fly. Now, engineers and designers are applying origami principles to reshape the world around us—and even within us, designing new drugs, micro-robots, and future space missions. The question is: can the mathematics of origami be boiled down to one elegant algorithm—a fail-proof formula to make any object out of a flat surface, just by folding? If so, what will that mean for the future of design? Explore the high-tech future of this age-old art as NOVA unfolds “The Origami Revolution.”

Basic Origami
Thursday, July 12, 6-8 PM

Reference Librarian, Brad Allard, will show you how to fold three dimensional objects out of a piece of origami paper.

Brad will describe the origami process step-by-step. Traditional origami papers will be provided. Even beginning origami pieces are astonishing for their beauty. All materials will be supplied. This class is limited to 8, so you must register to attend.

Outside the Lines: Adult Coloring Club

Come ex-stress yourself to imagine, create, relax and color with other enthusiasts. No rules here - you may color outside the lines! We'll provide the pictures, crayons, markers and colored pencils or bring your own if you prefer. You provide the time and creativity. Attendees must be 18 years or older.

CCPL, Writers Series
Local Writers Round Table
Tuesday, July 17, 6:30 PM

Let's talk craft.

For July's Writer Program all local writers are invited to participate in a round table discussion about the joys and tribulations of getting words on the page. Bring short examples of your work, reference books you like to use, examples from inspiring authors, recipes for beverages and foods you feed your muse (ever heard of Procrastibaking? See the New York Time article “Why work when you can Procrastibake?”) recommendations for writing apps, or the perfect pencil or pen and paper combinations. Sharpen up your Blackwing 602, bring your best writing ideas and get to know your writing peers. Please register to attend.

All Over The Page
I See You, by Clare Mackintosh
Monday, July 23, 11AM

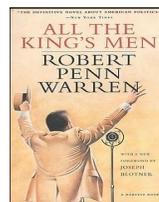

Zoe Walker sees her picture in a personal ad for a dating website. At first she thinks there must be a mistake. She soon learns that other women whose pictures have appeared in these ads have been subjected to violent crimes. Zoe contacts the police. PC Kelly Smith, a disgraced former detective, works to find the mastermind behind the website and redeem herself. As each day passes Zoe becomes more and more paranoid and suspicious of everyone she meets.

All the King's Men
Led by Tim Janes
Tuesday, July 24, 6 PM

All The Kings Men is the Pulitzer Prize winning masterpiece from Kentuckian Robert Penn Warren. This American classic examines themes of cynical populism, personal responsibility, and the unstoppable movement of time. It has been called the unequalled, definitive American political novel. Tim Janes is one of the Library's best and most eclectic readers. His enthusiasm for books and his understanding of how literature works make him a natural book group moderator. He is a graduate of Western Kentucky University with a major in English Literature and he leads the Sherlock Holmes Reading Group at Rose Mary C. Brooks Place. Refreshments will be served. Books available at the circ desk. Please register to attend.

Local History Potluck Dinner Program
The State of Bourbon: Exploring the Spirit of Kentucky

Blair Thomas Hess and Cameron M. Ludwick
Thursday, July 26,
6:15 Dinner, 7 PM Program

Our July Potluck Supper Program will offer something fun, coming from the folks who wrote My Old Kentucky Road Trip. You may remember Blair Thomas Hess and Cameron Ludwick from Local History Week of 2016; they gave us a tour of their road trips to Kentucky sites through the pages of their ‘Road Trip’ book.

For July's program, they will give us an inside look at the production of their new book, The State of Bourbon: Exploring the Spirit of Kentucky, due out in August and published by Indiana University Press and Red Lightning Books. Our presenters plan to offer an inside look into how they go about planning their trips for fact gathering and producing the photography that graces their pages. Who knows, we might even get some tips on how to construct our own travelogue of our favorite historic landmarks.

Bring a dish and join us for this interesting program; it is free and open to the public. You may also come at 6:50 PM if you would prefer not to enjoy the potluck, but let us know. Either way, to ensure you have a seat, call for a reservation. Dial 744-5661. Or you can register by using Evanced the Library online registration system accessed from our web site, www.clarkbooks.org.
