You people don’t just think outside the box, you think outside the dictionary! –Maria Semple

Outside the Lines: Adult Coloring Club
Saturdays, March 10 & 24, 10AM - 4PM
Think you’re too old to color? Think again! It’s fun and a great way to combat stress. Adult coloring is all the rage! Come express yourself to imagine, create, relax and color with other enthusiasts. No rules here - you may color outside the lines! We’ll provide the pictures, crayons, markers and colored pencils or bring your own if you prefer. You provide the time and creativity.
Attendees must be 18 years or older.

Pageturner’s Book Group
I Let You Go, by Clare Mackintosh
Monday, March 12, 11AM
Five-year-old Jacob is killed in a hit and run, an event that sends the police in search of the driver. Jenna Gray flees to Wales to mourn the loss of her son and recover from her past. As the anniversary of Jacob’s still unsolved death approaches, a tip to police results in the discovery of a new lead. The twins are stripped of the normalities they once shared, raised separately, and their separation brings to light the horrors unknown to others, and they find themselves stripped of the personalities they once shared.

Easter Chicks & Bunnies
Saturday, March 24, 1 PM
Marie Quick will show you how to make adorable Easter decorations out of colored eggs and bits of construction paper.
All materials supplied. This class is limited to 12. Please register to attend.

All Over The Page
Mischling, by Affinity Konar
Monday, March 26, 11AM
It's 1944 when the twin sisters arrive at Auschwitz with their mother. In their benighted new world, Pearl and Stasha Zagorski take refuge in their identical natures, comforting themselves with the private language and shared games of their childhood. As part of the experimental population of twins known as Mengel's Zoo, the girls experience privileges and horrors unknown to others, and they find themselves stripped of the personalities they once shared.
Books are available at the Circulation Desk.

Meeting of Minds: Tuesday, February 27, 6:30 PM
Meeting of Minds is the Library’s discussion group. We discuss ideas. We don’t argue. Every viewpoint is welcome.
