The Laptop Lab: Scheduled One-on-One or Small Group Computer Instruction Sessions
Computer Classes to Fit Your Needs & Schedule
The Library’s old Internet 1.2 and Easy Email sessions were limited to Internet searching and creating Email accounts and they were limited to one morning a week. Laptop Labs sessions fit your needs and schedule. Let us know what you’d like to learn and we’ll schedule a session to help you. These sessions are for individuals or small groups of up to four people. Individual or small group sessions make learning easier. If one session is not sufficient, more sessions can be scheduled.
For information or to schedule, contact adult services librarian, John Maruskin, at 859-744-5661, ext. 110, or email john.clarkbooks@gmail.com.

Winchester Writers Group
Tuesday, March 12, 6:00 PM

Winchester/Clark County Writers meet the second Tuesday of each month to read the short stories they have written. Topics for next month’s meeting are suggested at the end of each meeting. Or, writers may write about a topic of their own choice. After the story is read, it is then discussed by the group. We welcome beginning writers or published authors. For information, contact the President, Betty Pace: bettypace3@aol.com.

Kentucky Playwright’s Workshop
3-One Act Plays
Sunday, March 17, 1:30-4:30 PM

Kentucky Playwrights Workshop presents readings of three one-act plays, each running about 30 minutes in length. Discussions will follow. The authors are local playwright Bill McCann, Jr. whose _Southern Gothic_ explores whether or not an elderly man suffering from dementia can help solve a decades-old murder mystery. Lexington playwright Michael McComb’s _Dinner at Zuck’s_ is a comedy about a young man’s meal with Facebook founder Mark Zuckerberg. Barboursville playwright Catherine Rhoden-Goguen's play _Unstoppable by Design_ explores the gut punches Matt endures on his quest for success despite the probability of failure. Will his drive and perseverance be enough, or was his fate sealed with the first blow?

Kentucky Playwrights Workshop is a 501(c)3 public charity that encourages development of new stage works. In addition to this afternoon of readings others are being developed for other regions and cities across the state; six are planned for 2019. Follow KPW’s Facebook page or visit their website for more information and for updates.

Book Lunch
_The Red Lamp_, by Mary Roberts Rinehart
Thursday, March 21, Noon

An all-around skeptic when it comes to the supernatural, William Porter gives no credence to claims that Twin Towers, the seaside manor he’s just inherited, might be haunted. His wife, more attuned to spiritual disturbance, doesn’t want to occupy the house.

Not long after they arrive, Porter sees the evidence of haunting that the townpeople speak of: a shadowy figure illuminated by the red light of a writing lamp.

Copies available at the circulation desk. Please register to attend.

All Over The Page
_The Silent Patient_, by Alex Michaelides
Monday, March 25, 11AM

A therapist becomes dangerously obsessed with uncovering the truth about what prompted his client, an artist who refuses to speak, to violently murder her husband in a way that triggers mass public speculation.

Books are available at the Circulation Desk.

Meeting of Minds:
Tuesday, March 26, 6:30 PM

At Meeting of Minds we talk about set topics, or freestyle and see where the conversation goes. We discuss ideas. We don’t argue.

Every viewpoint is welcome. For information contact Adult Services Librarian, John Maruskin, john.clarkbooks@gmail.com, 859-744-5661, ext. 110

Patrick Gilligan signs His New Book:
_Around Kentucky with the Bug_
Friday, March 29, 3-5 PM

An account of a father’s whirlwind year around Kentucky with his apprentice (bug) jockey son. An absolute treat...one of the most engaging books I have read.”—Richard Forristal, _Racing Post_
