RONT KIDBEEY’S COMEDY CLASSIC
STEAMBOAT BILL, JR. A SILENT MOVIE
STARRING DUSTER KEATON
TUESDAY, MARCH 17, 6 PM
William "Steamboat Bill" Canfield, owner and captain of a run-down paddle steamer eagerly awaits his college son, whom he has not seen since childhood. He expects a brawny man like himself who'll help him compete with businessman John James King's luxurious new riverboat. He is sorely disappointed when Bill, Jr. shows up with a pencil moustache, a ukulele and a beret, and he's outraged when he discovers Bill, Jr. and King's daughter Kitty, are in love. Both business rivals are determined to break up the relationship.
In 2016, The Library of Congress selected this film for preservation in the United States National Film Registry. It is known for Keaton's most famous stunt: The facade of an entire house falls on top of him while he stands in the perfect spot to pass through the open attic window instead of being flattened. A classic cartoon precedes the movie. Please register to attend.
