The Laptop Lab: Scheduled One-on-One or Small Group Computer Instruction Sessions

Computer Classes to Fit Your Needs & Schedule

The Library’s old Internet 1,2 and Easy Email sessions were limited to Internet searching and creating Email accounts and they were limited to one morning a week. Laptop Labs sessions fit your needs and schedule. Let us know what you’d like to learn and we’ll schedule a session to help you. These sessions are for individuals or small groups of up to four people. Individual or small group sessions make learning easier. If one session is not sufficient, more sessions can be scheduled.

For information or to schedule, contact adult services librarian, John Maruskin, at 859-744-5661, ext. 110, or email john.clarkbooks@gmail.com.

Pageturner’s Book Group
River of Earth, by James Still
Monday, May 13, 11AM

It is the story of three years in the life of a boy’s family and kin. No writer has caught more effectively the vividness of mountain speech or shown more honestly the trials and joys of mountain life.

Books are available at the Circulation Desk.

Winchester Writers’ Group
Tuesday, May 14, 6:00 PM

Winchester/Clark County Writers meet the second Tuesday of each month to read the short stories they have written. Topics for next month’s meeting are suggested at the end of each meeting. Or, writers may write about a topic of their own choice. After the story is read, it is then discussed by the group. We welcome beginning writers or published authors. For information, contact the President, Betty Pace: bettypace3@aol.com.

Book Lunch
Good Omens, by Neal Gaiman & Terry Pratchett
Thursday, May 16, Noon

It is the coming of the End Times: the Apocalypse is near, and Final Judgement will soon descend upon the human species. This comes as a bit of bad news to the angel Aziraphale (who was the guardian of the Eastern Gate of Eden) and the demon Crowley (who, when he was originally named Crawly, was the serpent who tempted Eve to eat the apple), respectively the representatives of Heaven and Hell on Earth. They have become used to living their cozy, comfortable lives and have, in a perverse way, taken a liking to humanity. As such, since they are good friends (despite ostensibly representing the polar opposites of Good and Evil), they decide to work together and keep an eye on the Antichrist, destined to be the son of a prominent American diplomat stationed in Britain, and thus ensure he grows up in a way that means he can never decide between Good and Evil, thereby postponing the end of the world. Local History Potluck Supper Program
Dr. Pearlie Johnson presents:
Quilt Art: Examining the Narrative in Kentucky Quilts
Thursday, May 23, 6:15 PM Supper, 7 PM Program

Based on historical records, secondary sources, and oral history interviews with quilters across Kentucky, Dr. Johnson discusses 19th century quilts made by black women living and working on slave plantations, traditional quilts made by African American women of the 20th century, as well as contemporary art quilts made by women of all cultural groups of the 21st century. Her work explores women's history, storytelling, identity politics, social activism and empowerment. Her study of quilts in Kentucky is aimed at examining cross-cultural parallels in technique and assemblage, as well as revealing unique designs. Bring a dish and join us for this enlightening Potluck History Supper. It is free and open to the public. You may come at 6:50 PM if you prefer not to enjoy the potluck, but let us know. Either way, to ensure you have a seat, call for a reservation. Call the Library, 859-744-5661. Or, you can register by using the online Evanced registration system which can be accessed on the Library’s web site, www.clarkbooks.org.
