Pageturner's Book Group
The Honey Bus, by Meredith May
Monday, November 11, 11AM

Meredith May recalls the first time a honeybee crawled on her arm. She was five years old, her parents had recently split and suddenly she found herself in the care of her grandfather, an eccentric beekeeper who made honey in a rusty old military bus in the yard. That first close encounter was at once terrifying and exhilarating for May, and in that moment she discovered that everything she needed to know about life and family was right before her eyes, in the secret world of bees.

Books are available at the Circulation Desk.

RON KIDDEY'S COMEDY CLASSIC
The Kid, starring Charlie Chaplin and Jackie Coogan
Tuesday, November 12, 6 PM

The Kid is a 1921 American silent comedy-drama film written by, produced by, directed by, and starring Charlie Chaplin, and features Jackie Coogan as his adopted son and sidekick. This was Chaplin's first full-length film as director. It was a huge success, and was the second-highest-grossing film in 1921.

In 2011, The Kid was selected for preservation in the United States National Film Registry by the Library of Congress as "culturally, historically, or aesthetically significant." Innovative in its combination of comedic and dramatic elements, The Kid is widely considered one of the greatest films of the silent era. There will be an opening cartoon. Soft drinks and popcorn, too.

Book Lunch:
Northanger Abbey, by Jane Austen
Thursday, November 21, Noon

Austen's latest, Northanger Abbey, is her most youthful and optimistic of her works. Her irrepressible heroine, this is the most youthful and optimistic of Jane Austen's works. "books-or at least books of information-provided they were all story and no reflection, she had never any objection to books at all.”

During an eventful season at Bath, young, naïve Catherine Morland experiences the joys of fashionable society for the first time. She is delighted with her new acquaintances: flirtatious Isabella, who shares Catherine's love of Gothic romance and horror, and sophisticated Henry and Eleanor Tilney. Henry and Eleanor invite Catherine to their father's mysterious house, Northanger Abbey where Catherine, her imagination influenced by novels of sensation and intrigue, suspects terrible crimes committed by General Tilney. With its broad comedy and irrepressible heroine, this is the most youthful and optimistic of Jane Austen's works.

Books available at the circulation desk. Please register to attend.
