Laptop Lab: Scheduled One-on-One or Small Group Computer Instruction Sessions

Computer Classes to Fit Your Needs & Schedule

The Library’s old Internet 1,2 and Easy Email sessions were limited to Internet searching and creating Email accounts and they were limited to one morning a week. Laptop Labs sessions fit your needs and schedule. Let us know what you’d like to learn and we’ll schedule a session to help you. These sessions are for individuals or small groups of up to four people. Individual or small group sessions make learning easier. If one session is not enough, more sessions can be scheduled. For information or to schedule, contact adult services librarian, John Maruskin, at 859-744-5661, ext. 110, or email john.clarkbooks@gmail.com.

Ron Kibbey’s Comedy Classics Return
Tuesday, September 17, 6 PM
The comedy classics Ron Kibbey picked to show during the 2019 ASRP and his introductions to the films (in costume) were so popular and appreciated, attendees demanded the Library continue the series. So, Ron’s back after a successful trip to the Big Apple. This month the program will start with a Betty Boop cartoon and then Ron will introduce two Laurel & Hardy shorts: The Music Box and Another Fine Mess.

In The Music Box, a woman orders a player piano as a surprise birthday gift for her husband and asks the manager to deliver it to 1127 Walnut Avenue. He hires the Laurel and Hardy Transfer Company to deliver the piano in their freight wagon. When they get to Walnut Avenue, they find 1127 is at the top of a precipitous set of stairs. Mayhem ensues. The Music Box won the Academy Award in 1932 for best comedy short.

In Another Fine Mess, Olie and Stan are vagabonds chased by the police. They hide in the cellar of Colonel Wilburforce Buckshot’s mansion. The boys are surrounded by police and deceive a honeymooning couple renting the house that Ollie is Buckshot and Stan is both Hives the butler and Agnes the chambermaid. The movie’s most memorable scene is a girl-talk conversation between Thelma Todd as Lady Plumtree and Stan as Agnes the maid. These are films and cartoons the whole family can enjoy. All ages invited, but children under fifteen must be accompanied by an adult. Popcorn and soft drinks, too. You’ll have a swell time.

Book Lunch: The 4:50 from Paddington, by Agatha Christie
Thursday, September 19, Noon
September is Agatha Christie month at Book Lunch. Elspeth McGillicuddy takes the 4:50 from Paddington to visit her old friend Jane Marple. Watching another train pass on a parallel track, she sees a compartment blind fly up revealing a tall, dark man strangling a blonde woman in a fur coat. Railway employees don’t believe her and no body is found along the tracks. However, Miss Marple knows Elspeth is observant and honest. So she sets out to find the body and the murderer. Trains, an English Manor House, eccentric Crackenthorpes, and Lucy Eyesbarrow, a feisty young female sidekick. Classic Christie. Of course, you’ve seen the BBC Hickson and ITV McEwan versions...but the novel’s better. Copies available at the circulation desk. Please register to attend.

For information about the topic this month and to get any reading, please contact Adult Services Librarian, John Maruskin, john.clarkbooks@gmail.com, 859-744-5661, ext. 110.

Local History Potluck Dinner Program
Speaking Our Piece: Language Variation in Kentucky,
Presented by Jennifer Cramer, Associate Professor of Linguistics, University of Kentucky
Thursday, September 26
6:15 PM, Dinner, 7 PM Program
Kentucky is located at a particularly interesting crossroads in the linguistic landscape of the United States. This presentation introduces the specific linguistic situation in Kentucky by examining several linguistic, sociolinguistic, and educational aspects of language in the many diverse regions of the Commonwealth. We will explore not only how language is variously produced but also how people’s impressions of the language of their fellow Kentuckians changes from place to place. If you are interested in attending the potluck dinner, please bring a dish and arrive at 6:15. If you prefer to just hear the program, arrive a few minutes before 7 PM. Either way, please register to attend in person, by phone, 859-744-5661, or use the Libraries Evanced online registration system at www.clarkbooks.org.
