THE SENIOR'S FAREWELL

Farewell to thee--Old City High
For now we leave thy watchful eye.
We hope to be successful and thrifty,
We, the class of nineteen-fifty.

Mr. Ogden, Mr. Dennis, and teachers, too;
We express our gratitude to you.
You have taught us through the years,
Brought us laughter, gayety, and tears.

To the Shawnee teams, we bid adieu.
May the future hold good luck for you.
To clubs and organizations, all;
Their principles in the future we shall recall.

Dear boys and girls whom we leave behind,
We hope you will our good luck find.
Realizing that if you study with zest,
You will at last your diploma possess.

As we go out with the will to succeed;
The knowledge we've gained, we'll surely need.
Each year we'll work a little harder
And think often of our Alma Mater.
