Missing Molly by Natalie Barelli

Rachel Holloway works hard to keep the past dead and buried. But, the small newspaper where she works wants to produce a podcast on a cold case: the disappearance of young Molly Forster. As far as Rachel is concerned, no one can ever know the truth: that she is Molly Forster.

Digital copies of Missing Molly are available from Hoopla in the Online Library at www.clarkbooks.org. For information and a Zoom invitation email jennifer.clarkbooks@gmail.com.

Bird Box, by Josh Malerman

Something is out there . . .

Something terrifying that must not be seen. One glimpse and a person is driven to deadly violence. No one knows what it is or where it came from.

Five years after it began, a handful of scattered survivors remain, including Malorie and her two young children. Living in an abandoned house near the river, she has dreamed of fleeing to a place where they might be safe. Now, that the boy and girl are four, it is time to go. But the journey ahead will be terrifying: twenty miles downriver in a rowboat—blindfolded—with nothing to rely on but her wits and the children's trained ears. One wrong choice and they will die. And something is following them. But is it man, animal, or monster?

Unlimited Ebooks and Audiobooks of Bird Box are available through Hoopla in CCPL's "Online Library." Email James.clarkbooks@gmail.com for a Zoom invitation.

The Dutch House by Ann Patchett

Ann Patchett, #1 New York Times bestselling author delivers her most powerful novel to date: a richly moving story that explores the indelible bond between two siblings, the house of their childhood, and a past that will not let them go.

Set over the course of five decades, The Dutch House is a dark fairy tale about two smart people who cannot overcome their past. Despite outward signs of success, Danny and Maeve are only comfortable together. They return to the well-worn story of what they've lost with humor and rage. But when they're forced to confront the people who left them behind, the relationship between an indulged brother and his ever-protective sister is tested.

Digital copies of The Dutch House are available from Hoopla in the Online Library at www.clarkbooks.org. For information and a Zoom invitation email jennifer.clarkbooks@gmail.com.
